

Descendent of the Light

I come from a world,
Which is warm and bright,
Which is colorful and cheerful,
Which is peaceful and quiet.

I live in a place,
Where we find hope,
Where we pursuit our dreams,
Where we have all kinds of fantasy.

I come from a culture,
Of wisdom and art,
Of thankfulness and care,
Of compassion and love.

I am the one,
from the holy light.
I am a descendent of the Light.
