

Theme: Future

I look into the crystal ball
And see where my future will fall.
But the ball seems so opaque and vague
That no conclusions can be made.

I ask Mom about my future
And see if I'm gonna take an adventure.
But she said, 'Little girl, don't worry,
Wherever you go, you'll still be happy.'

Tomorrow is a future,
And ten years later is still a future.
The destination of future is so unclear
And the sound of future is not yet for me to hear.

No one can tell how my future is like
But I'm the one who make my future light.
To make my future bright,
I should live the present right.

5D Leung Cheuk Yiu, Earnest