

George Washington

I am but a leader and a general

I wonder if I have made a wise decision in agreeing to become president.

I hear the sound of men crying for help.

I see a country waiting to be led.

I am but a leader and a general

I pretend that we will be victorious in every battle

I touch the hands that I will let my people down

I understand that not everyone can lead a happy life

1C (9) Fathima

(21) Joy Lo