

Mother Teresa

All people can remember her name
Mother Teresa cares very little for female
She's small in stature, her soul's so simple
And enjoyed walking a happy mile with people.

Crookedness was never in her heart
Loves would never be apart
Heart was so pure as an angel
She had a life of butterfly.

She laughed when the sick laughed
She comforted them when they cried
There is no one like her
There will ever be.
